OU a e BANGALORE JOURNALBMPICITIZEN JOURNALISMENSGENRE: local newspaper newspaper unique number. This unique number, which will be geo-referenced with the latitude and longitude information of the property, can effectively act as your address too. This number will replace your existing Property Identification (PID) number, which is not geo-referenced.The civic body will start issuing these unique numbers soon after its GIS-enabled Property Tax Information System is mounted on the Bhuvan platform of Indian Space Research Organisation, work on which will begin from April 1, said M.K. Gunashekhar, chairman, standing committee on taxation and finance, Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike. The BBMPeAAAs budget had a mention of the project.Unscientific numbering The PID system is in a mess owing to unscientific numbering being followed, said a senior BBMP official. The PID system includes the ward number, street number and door number of the property, all of which can often change. Ward delimitation exercise will render all existing PIDs erroneous, leading to issuing of new PIDs. There are already two sets of PIDs eAAA those issued before and after 2008, when the BBMP was formed. Moreover, the PID database is unlinked to the GIS database, khata, plan sanction, Bescom or BWSSB databases.Assigning new numbers was recommended by the BBMP Restructuring Committee. The 10-digit system will give scope for assigning numbers to 100 lakh properties, a far cry from todayeAAAs estimated 25 lakh properties in the city. eAAAn Singapore, the geo-referenced unique property number acts as your address. For instance, you can provide the number of your destination to a cab driver who will track it on the map. The unique number can enable this in Bengaluru too.eAAA said V. Ravichandrar, member of the committee.The 10-digit system will be error-proof and the system would not accept a wrong PID which may lead to tax payment to another account. The 10th digit will be derived through an algorithm applied on the first nine digits. An incorrect number in the tenth figure, will be immediately marked with an error, the sources said. Tax compliance with a geo-referential PID which is integrated with other datasets of the properties such as ownership documents and ecumbaranx, Khata, approval of the plan, tax receipts, utility services, it is expected to lead to a greater tax conformity in the city, ha Said V. Ravichandrar, member, Bbpm Restructuring Committee. The recent mapping GIS recognized about 19 Lakh properties, of which only 16 Lakh properties at 17 Lakh properties were in the tax network, indicating that the city did not use its potential tax base. a e ceThe technology helps us to cross-winerify self-assessment by the owners and detect sub-reporting, a e m.k. Gunashekhar, president, permanent taxation committee and finance, Bbpm said owners of property in Bengaluru can now take advantage of 5% discount against complete payment for 2022-23 until 31 May 2022. The BBMP follows aof value area (UAV), for the calculation of the amount of the property tax in Bangalore payable on residential properties. The UAV is based on the returns expected by the property, depending on his own and usage. The calculation is on a per sq ft, per month (unit) basis, for a particular location or street (area) and multiplied by the current property tax rate (value). No BBMP property tax landside Plans were on the evil for flourishing the property tax in Bangalore by 15%-30% for both residential and non residential properties. Special Commissioner BBMP Basavaraju said that a tax review is due in 2020 but cannot be carried out due to administrative reasons. As with the Karnataka Municipal Corporation Act (KMC), 1976, the BBMP can review the property tax in every three years. The move is important, to allow the civic agency in cash to meet its income goals. In 2019-20, the agency's revenue target was Rs 3,500 crores, but could only earn Rs 2,669 crores. The tax hike of the property had to be effective from 2021 March. However, property owners can sigh a sigh of relief as the plan was overwhelmed for now. Changes to KMC Act An amendment to KMC law (Karnataka Municipal Corporations Act) also allows BBMP officials to attach the property properties of defaults. The proposal to include the provision of the Land Revenue Act in the KMC Act and, therefore, the power of BBMP officials was made by the commissioner and given its assent by the government. The BBMP expects to achieve a turnover target of Rs 5,500 crores in 2020.
